

Huddle Digital is a start-up digital agency with customer service and innovation at its heart.

Specialists in web design, web development, UX design and digital marketing, Huddle has helped to transform client brand experiences, significantly streamline client business processes and has generated significant new business.

+77% increase in turnover in 3 years

82% client retention

+27% more website enquiries

+47% new website visitors

104 - 139 working days' resource saved annually

+78% avg increase in social media referrals

+46% increase in web traffic from all sources

“Although they are a small agency, they think big and bring innovative ideas to the table to solve digital challenges we didn't even know existed.

“The impact of their digital expertise... has helped to completely transform the experience of our online brand and we've experienced a significant number of new leads and traffic into the website as a result.”

Shrutika Tekawade
PR & Marketing Manager, Vail Williams LLP

“Huddle understood our business requirements and went above and beyond to deliver a tailored, innovative solution for our national investments team, which they have gone on to develop into a unique product for the marketplace.

They provided an excellent level of service and we continue to work with them.”

Mark Dansky
Partner, Allsop LLP

Huddle achieved results by challenging client briefs to produce bespoke digital solutions based on in-depth research. They specialise in digital innovation to deliver:

- Improved customer journeys
- Better brand experiences
- More brand awareness
- Business efficiency savings
- New business leads

Huddle achieved this using ongoing testing and development, including innovative software, bespoke CMS systems and tailored reporting systems to show impact.

Websites driven by people, profit and purpose

info@workwithhuddle.com 0161 327 2827