“Our PR consultants Holistic have helped us significantly raise our profile over the past twelve months to what I consider to now be an all-time high, putting us on a par with many of our west end peers.”
John Bell, Managing Partner, Glenny

“Holistic was invested in our business, Cuckooz Nest, from the very start, taking the time to understand our goals, helping us establish what was stand out about our concept, and preparing us for launch. Using their expertise and contacts, they generated interest from key media, and secured coverage about the initial launch in top tier consumer titles. The team is committed, enthusiastic and results driven.”
Charlie Rosier, Founder, Cuckooz Nest
