Wetland Centre wins beauty award

London Wetland Centre has been announced as London's most beautiful Window with a View following a public vote, which saw thousands of people across the country select their favourite images of stunning architecture and landscapes.

The attraction went up against Ting at The Shard and Madison in the London region of the third annual Window with a View competition, which was launched earlier this year by MyGlazing.com, the independent free consumer advice site.

London Wetland Centre will now go up against finalists from nine other regions across the country in a public vote to fight it out for the title of the UK's Best Window with a View. The winner of this year's award will take the crown from the reigning current Best Window with a View, London Bridge, which took the title in 2017.

The nine other regional winners which will now compete in the national best against London are Clay Windmill, Birmingham; Next the Sea, Fitcher and Fines, Birmingham; Roscombe Pier, south east; The Botanist, Newcastle; The Bells, Leeds; Port Eiras, Colwyn Bay; The Hopetoun Arms, Leadhills; City Tower, Manchester and Craft Camping, West Dorset.

The national winner will be decided via an online vote at MyGlazing.com. Voting will close on September 30. Every person who votes will be entered into a prize draw to win a camera. The national winner will be announced in October.
